

3...Is The Magic Number

For one night only – 3 of the most original, dynamic, and talented female vocalists in the Midlands performing live at the Tower of Song – Friday 10th September!!!

Angela Armstrong

A whimsical broken heart', and indeed there is a lot of heart ache in these self penned songs . In her stripped down folky style her sometimes awkward demeanor and fragility is part of her charm. Her voice has been likened to Jollie Holland , Mazy Star and Norah Jones though as far as Im concerned she is in a league of her own

Kelly Smith – Band: Camila Kill

Camila kill are a five piece band from the midlands. Their mesmerising mix of original songwriting really is not to be missed. They're dipping their musical toes in and out of genres creating exciting and eclectic sets. Fronted by a powerful female force of nature they're an exciting prospect, effortlessly cool and destined for big things! Watch this space!!

Jenni Gardner – Band: Snooty Bobs

Snooty Bobs are an 8 piece funk-latin-blues outfit weaned on the delights of the Allman Brothers Band, Funkadelic, Santana, and all things cool and snooty from that golden era of music – the 1970s!!! Based in the heart of the Midlands, Snooty Bobs boasts one of the most amazing and original female singers to come out of the region. A snooty gig is a gig not to be missed!!

Doors open 7pm - £3 entry